

HARPER-MADISON AMENDMENT #1 – ITEM 66

Amend Section 25-1-601(C) to add the following language: () a site plan or building permit for commercial development that would produce less than one whole functional population; and renumber accordingly

Explanation

Functional Population = Employee Density X Occupancy Rate X Operation Time X Percent Commuter from Outside

This amendment is intended to help safeguard our small and local businesses, which are also experiencing pressure from rising real estate and development costs, from the potential negative impacts of additional fees.
