

CVA is asking to renew our lease agreement for the 1100 E 11th Street property. We were limited in using the space during the last year, mainly because of the sweltering summer. However, we expect to utilize the space more frequently during the fall season as it would be more appropriate to accommodate patrons.