Section 2. Duties. The Non-Profit Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of accounts and shall also keep minutes of all proceedings of its Board of Directors. All books and records of the Non-Profit Corporation may be inspected by any director or director's agent or attorney for any proper purpose during regular business hours of the Non-Profit Corporation's principal office. No notice of regular meetings of the Board is required other than a resolution of the Board stating the time and place of meetings.

ARTICLE 3. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Board of Directors. The property and affairs of the Non-Profit Corporation are managed and controlled by a Board of Directors (the Board) and, subject to the restrictions imposed by law, the Certificate of Formation and these By-Laws, the Board exercises all of the powers of the Non-Profit Corporation.

(A) The Board consists of 3 directors, each of whom must be appointed by the board of directors of the AHFC. The Board is comprised of one class. Any director may be removed from office by the board of directors of AHFC for cause or at will.

(B) Directors serve for a term as approved by the board of directors of AHFC or until their successor is duly elected and qualified provided that the initial term of the directors is determined by the Certificate of Formation.

(C) Vacancies in the Board, including vacancies to be filled by an increase in the number of directors, must be filled by the board of directors of AHFC for terms of no more than 3 years.

(D) An individual Board member may not act in an official capacity except through the formal and noticed action of the entire Board.

Section 2. Action & Duties of the Board.

(A) A majority of the number of directors then in office constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. The directors present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may leave the meeting so that less than a quorum remains. However, no action may be approved without the vote of at least a majority of the number of directors required to constitute a quorum. If a quorum is present at any time during a meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn and reconvene the meeting one time without further notice.

(B) Directors shall exercise ordinary business judgment in managing the affairs of the Non-Profit Corporation. In acting in their official capacity as directors of the Non-Profit Corporation, directors shall act in good faith and take actions they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the Non-Profit Corporation and that are not unlawful. In all other instances, the Board may not take any action that they should reasonably believe would be opposed to the Non-Profit Corporation's best interests or would be unlawful. A director is not liable if, in the exercise of ordinary care, the director acts in good faith relying on written financial and legal statements provided by an accountant or attorney retained by the Non-Profit Corporation.

(C) The Board shall try to act by consensus. However, the vote of a majority of directors present and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present is sufficient to constitute the act of the Board of Directors unless the act of a greater number is required by law or the By-Laws. A director who is present at a meeting and abstains from a vote is not considered to be present and voting for the purpose of determining the decision of the Board. For the purpose of determining the decision of the Board, a director who is represented by a proxy in a vote is considered present.

(D) A director may vote by proxy executed in writing by the director. No proxy is valid after 3 months from the date of its execution.

(E) Action that is required to be taken, or may be taken, at a meeting of the directors of the Board may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, stating the action to be taken, is signed by the number of directors necessary to take that action at a meeting at which all of the directors are present and voting. The consent must state the date of each director's signature. Prompt notice of the taking of an action by the directors without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent must be given to each director who did not consent in writing to the action.

Section 3. Compensation of Directors. Directors may not receive salaries from the Non-Profit Corporation for their services. The Board may adopt a resolution providing for payment to directors of a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, for attendance at a meeting of the Board. A director may serve the Non-Profit Corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation for those services. Any compensation that the Non-Profit Corporation pays to a director must be commensurate with the services performed and reasonable in amount.

Section 3. Vice President. The vice president has such powers and duties as may be assigned by the Board and exercises the powers of the president during that officer's absence or inability to act.
