

DRAFT 1.1: Resource Management Commission Resolution on Oversight of Gas Utilities

Whereas, no City board or commission currently has purview to advise City Council on gas rate cases (unlike electric and water utility rates), gas franchises; or purview related to many environmental or consumer-related issues of these utilities; and

Whereas, the Resource Management Commission is willing to broaden its purview to include gas utilities;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Resource Management Commission request the City Council of Austin assign to the appropriate commission or governing entity the review of gas companies operating within the city limits to advise Council on economic and policy direction.
