Re: 1812 W.11th Street

Dear Ms. Allen,

I wanted to take a quick minute to express my support for the project at 1812 West 11th.

I've lived across the street from that house for over 30 years. I knew the several tenants through those years as well as the prior family owners, and I'm comfortable saying I think they'd all be good with the build plans. My own belief is that the proposed designs -- new construction plus retention and preservation of the existing home at the front of the lot -- seems very much in balance with the historic style of our neighborhood. More than that even, I know the new owners have good relationships throughout our street of neighbors and expect their build practices to reflect that.
