

TRANSPORTATION PUBLIC WORKS

Active Transportation & Street Design (ATSD) Projects Update

Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Councils - Briefing

Project Mix

Design Review

Support local and regional projects with multimodal street design outcomes

Street Design Services

Design, public engagement and delivery of projects on behalf of other capital programs such as Safe Routes to School

ATSD-Lead Projects

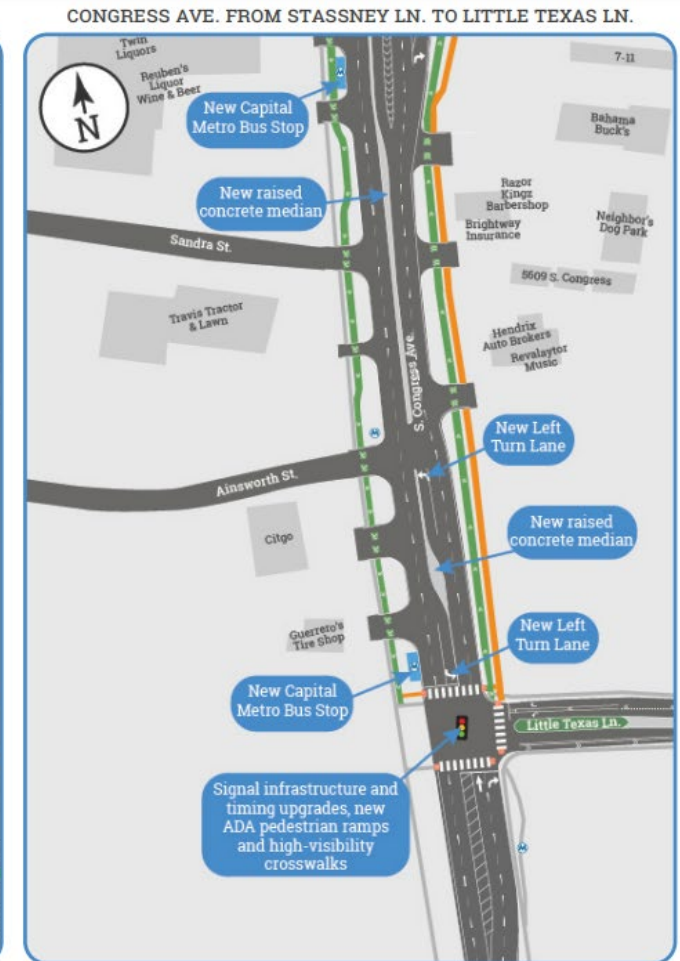

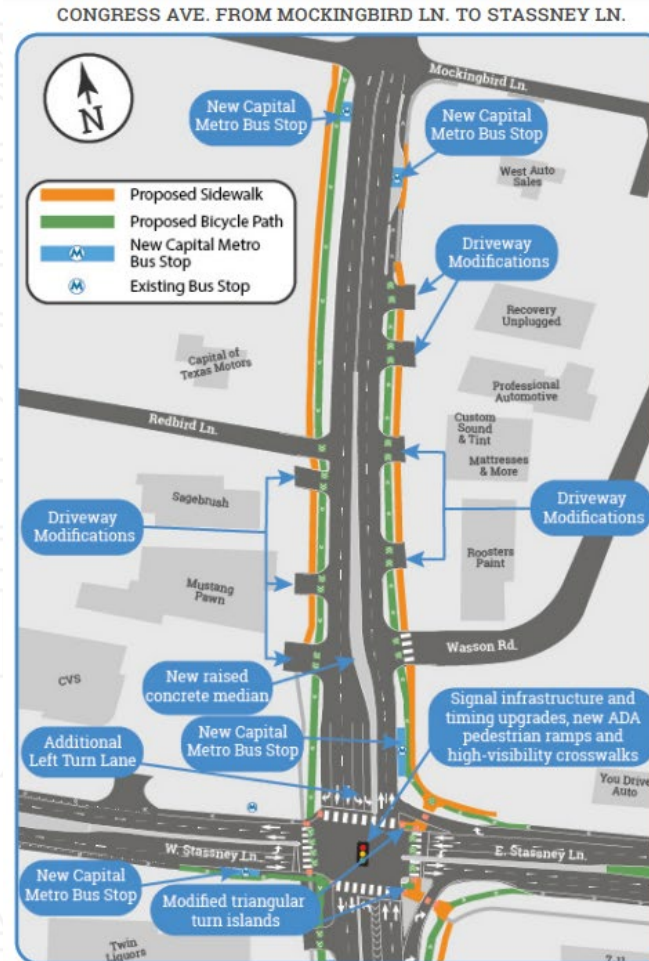

Projects that integrate Bikeway and Pedestrian Crossing investments with transit, safety and other elements.

A Sampling of In-Progress Projects

Barton Springs Road (Stratford Dr. – MoPac)

Congress Ave (Mockingbird Lane – Stassney Lane)

Copperfield Trail – Urban Trails Project

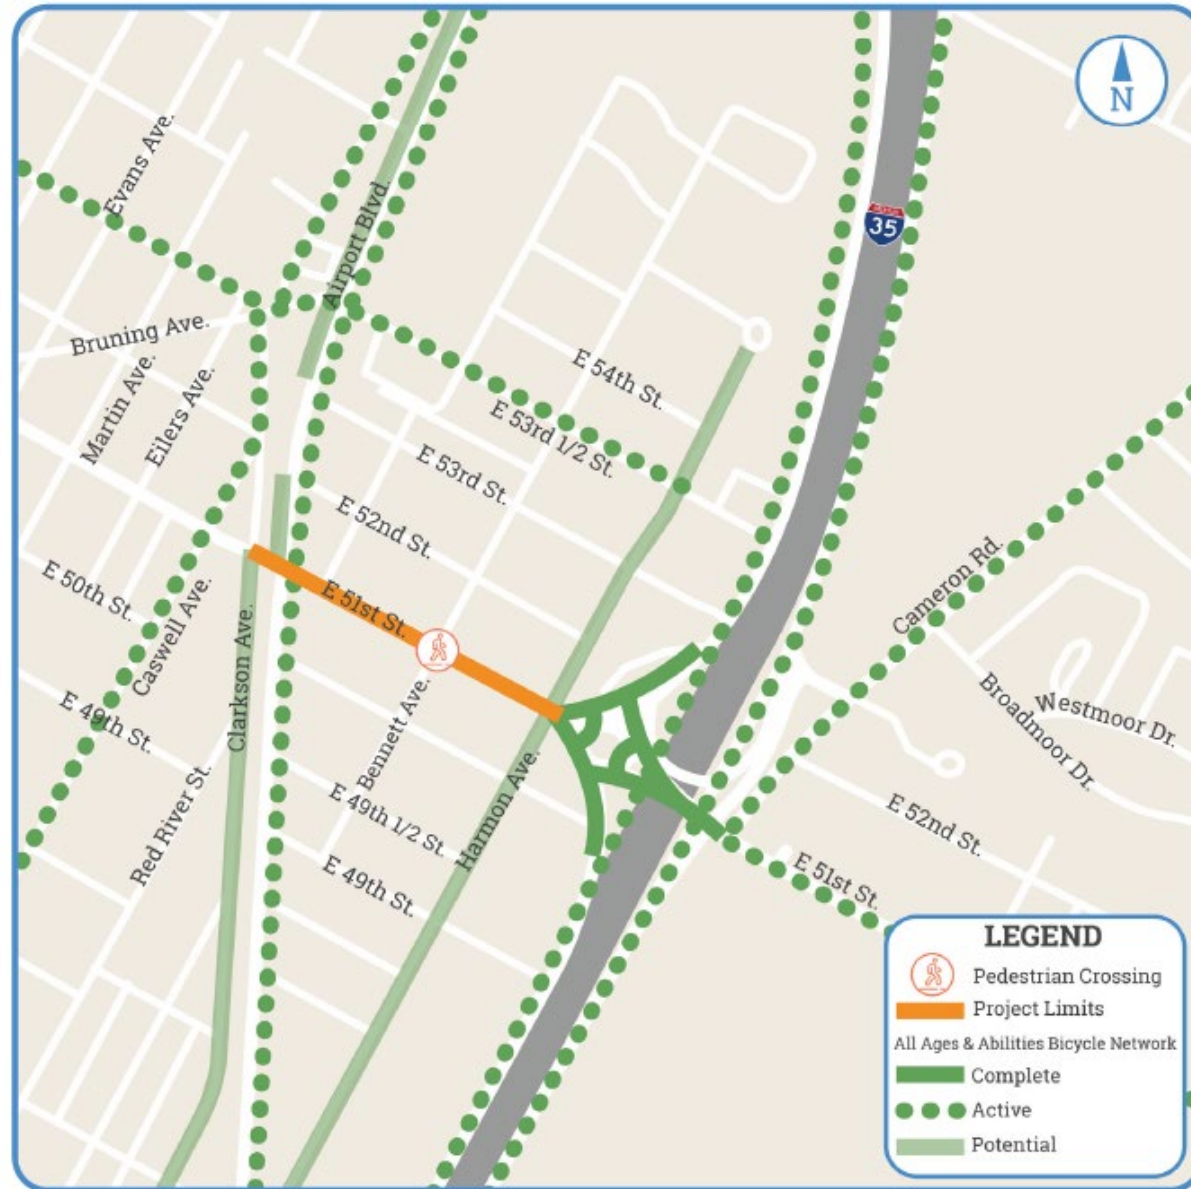

Chestnut Ave. (12th St. – 18th St.)

Kramer Lane at Burnet Road

E. 51st Street (IH-35 to Airport Blvd.)

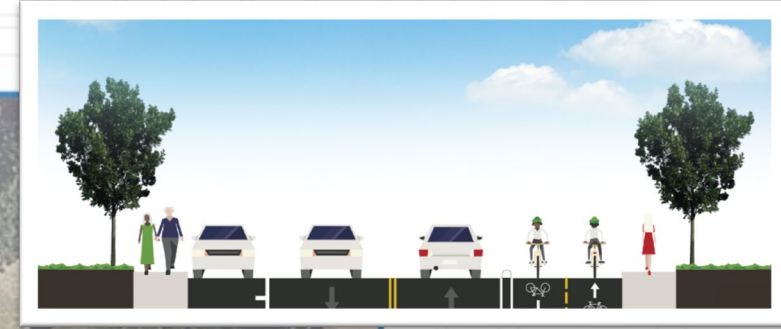

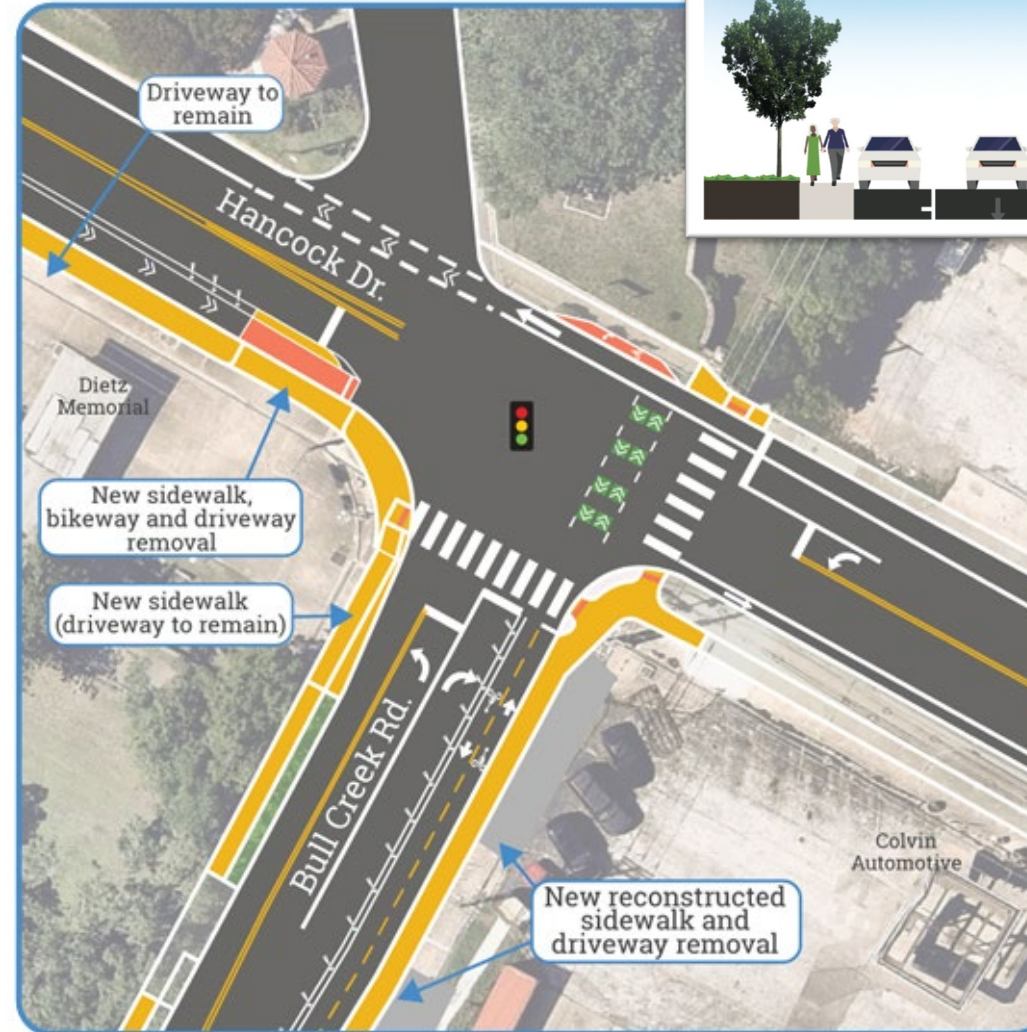

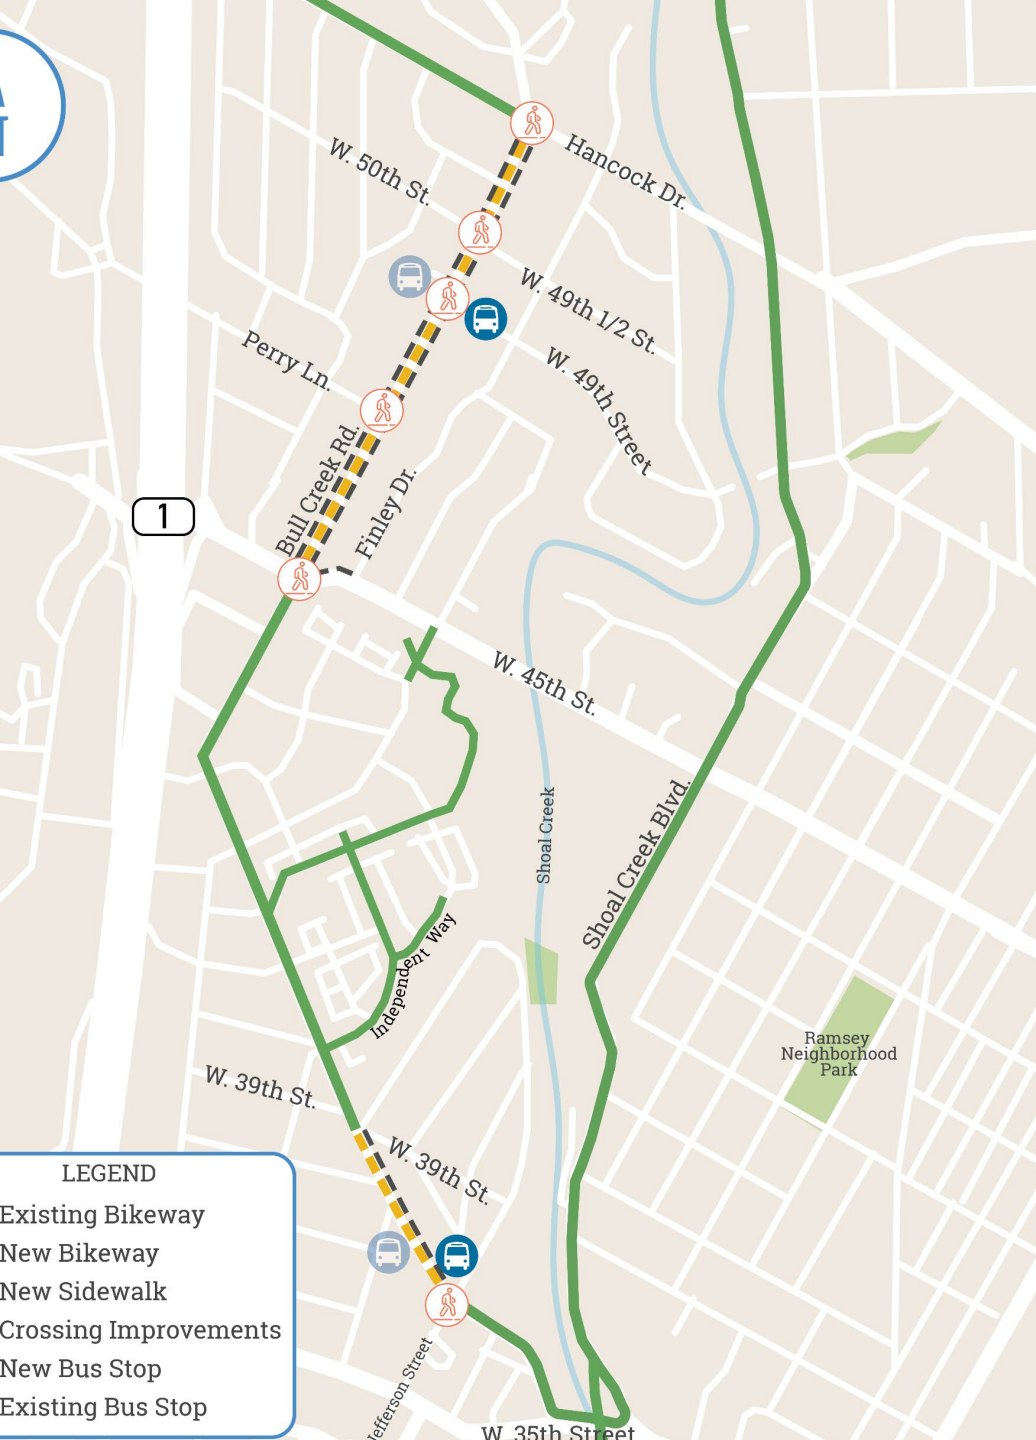

Bluebonnet Lane (Del Curto Rd. – Rabb Rd.)

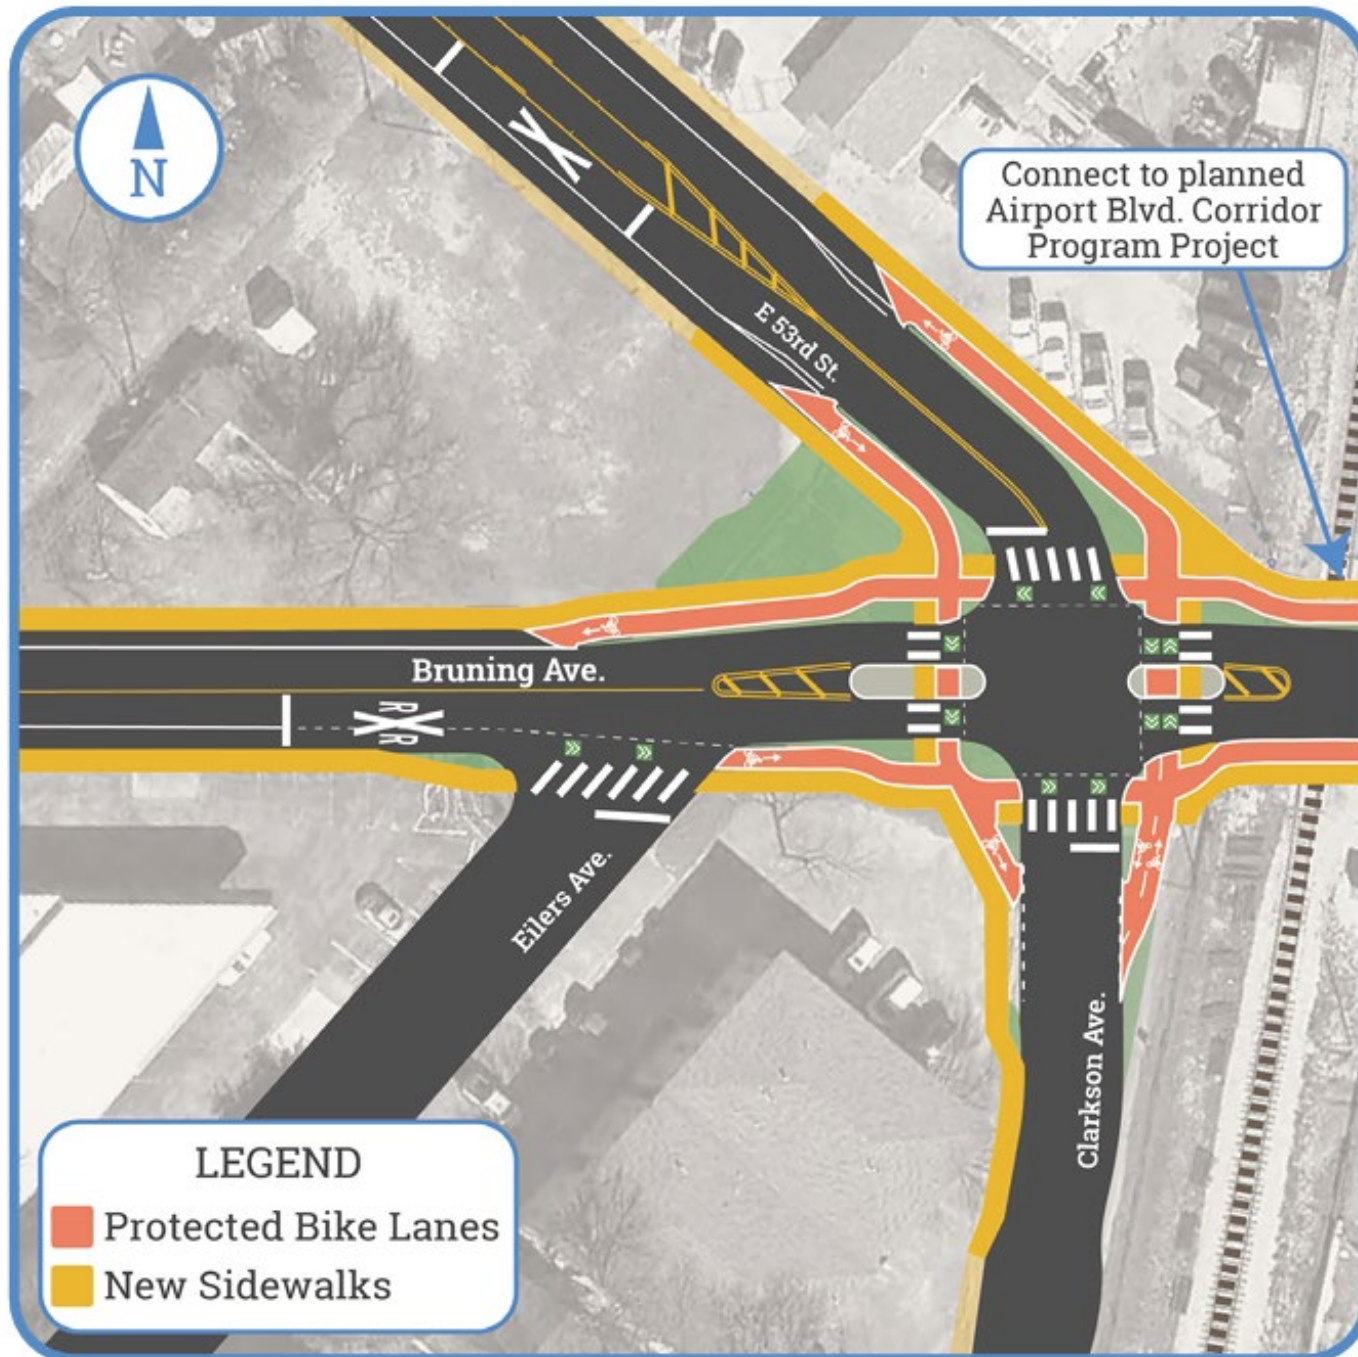

Speedway at 30th St.

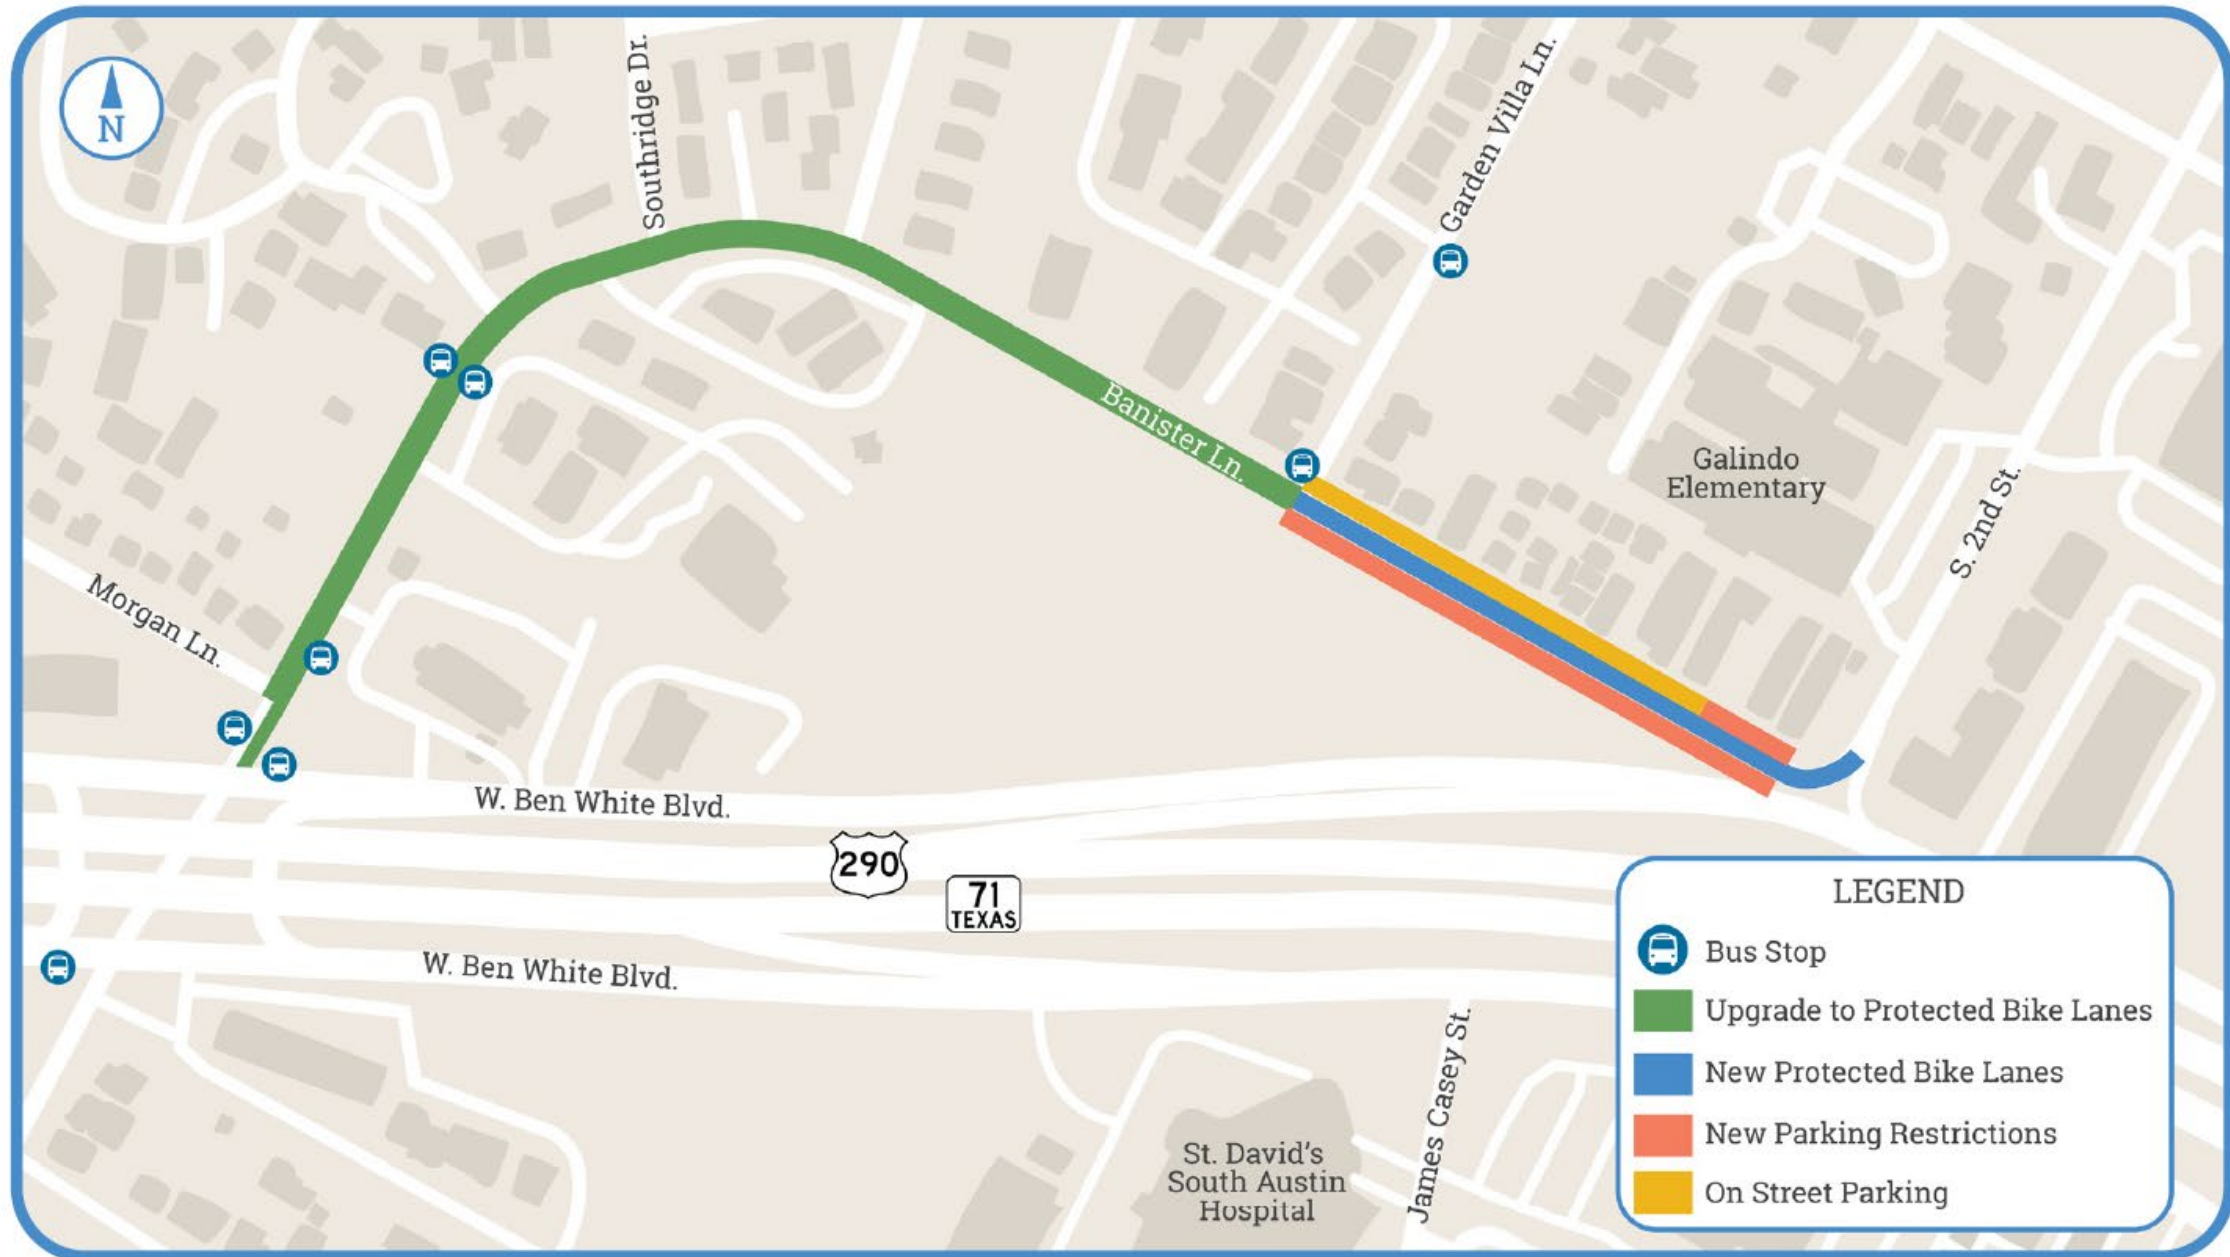

Bull Creek Road (45th St. – Hancock Dr. & 39th St. – Jefferson St.)

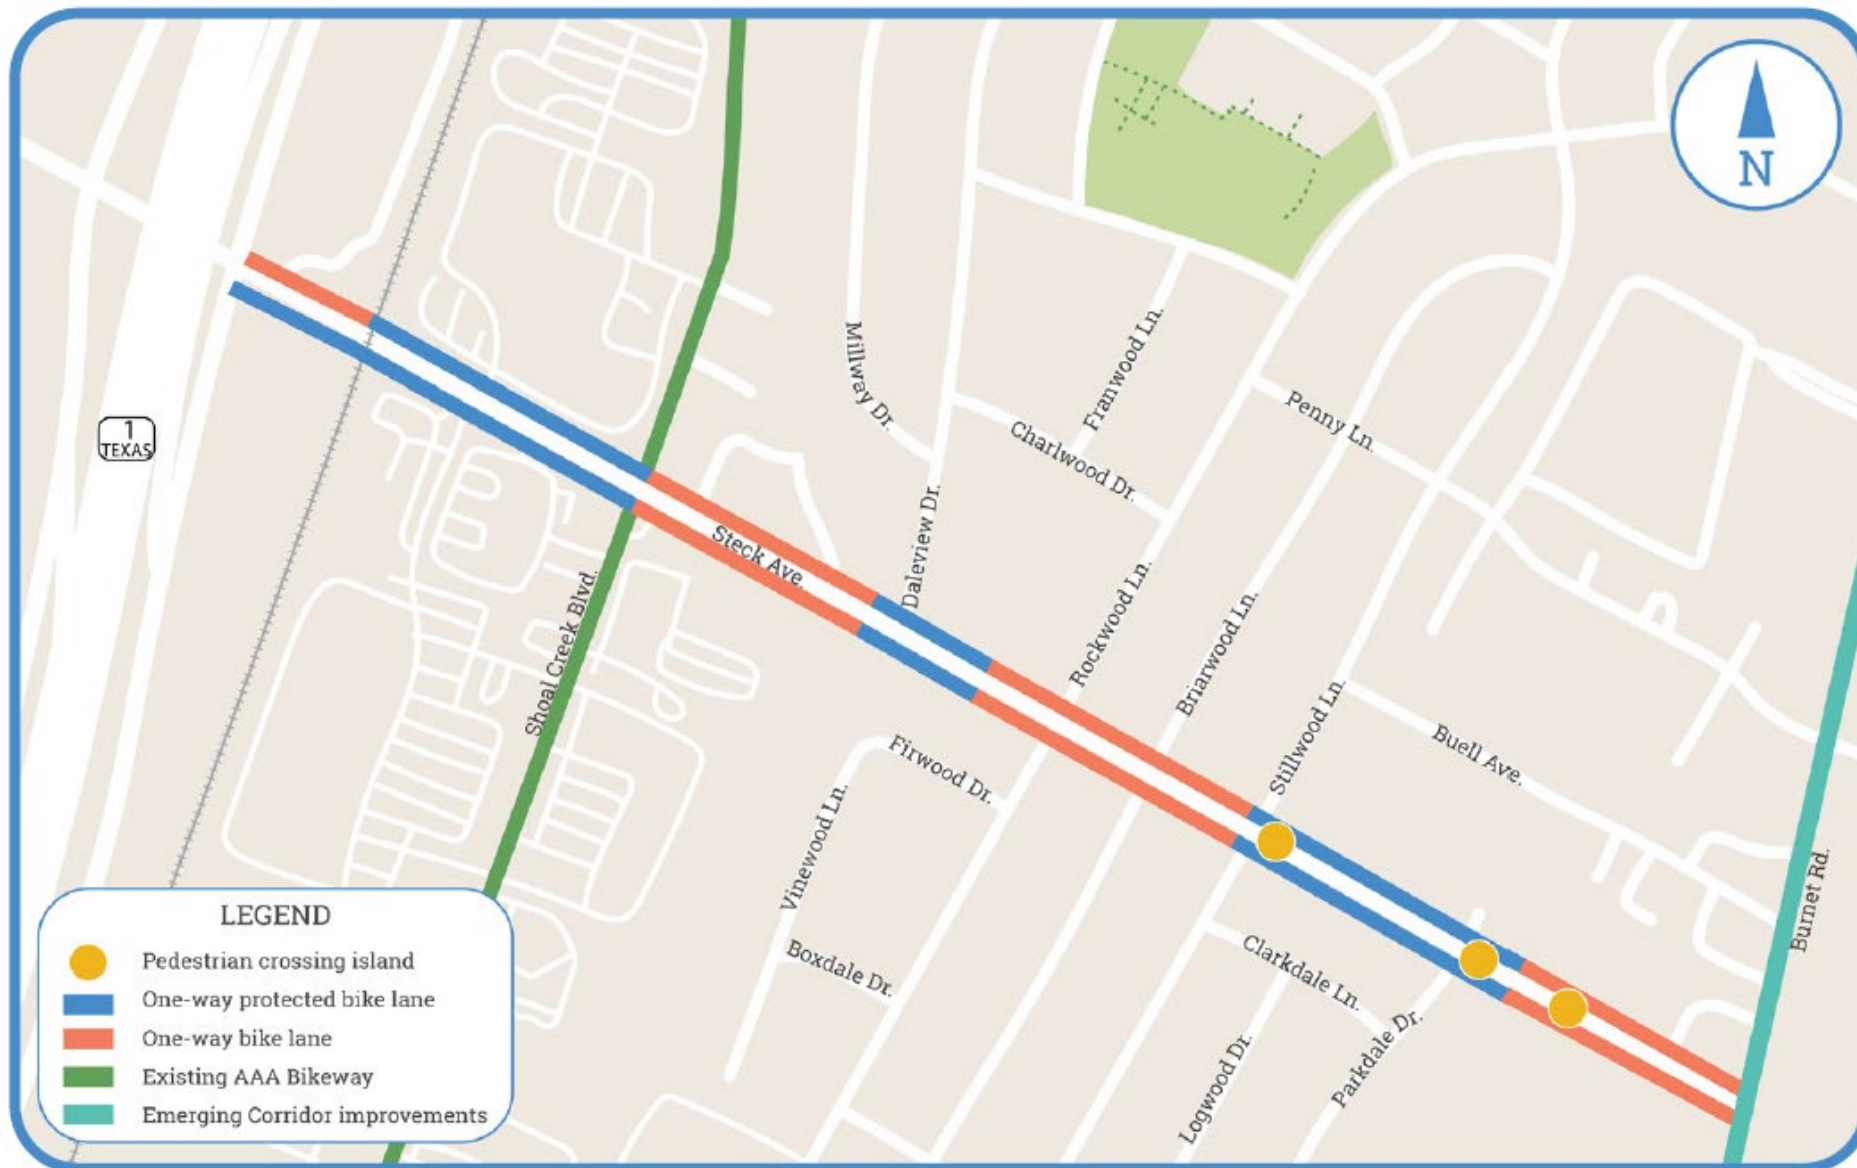

Bruning Ave. at E. 53rd

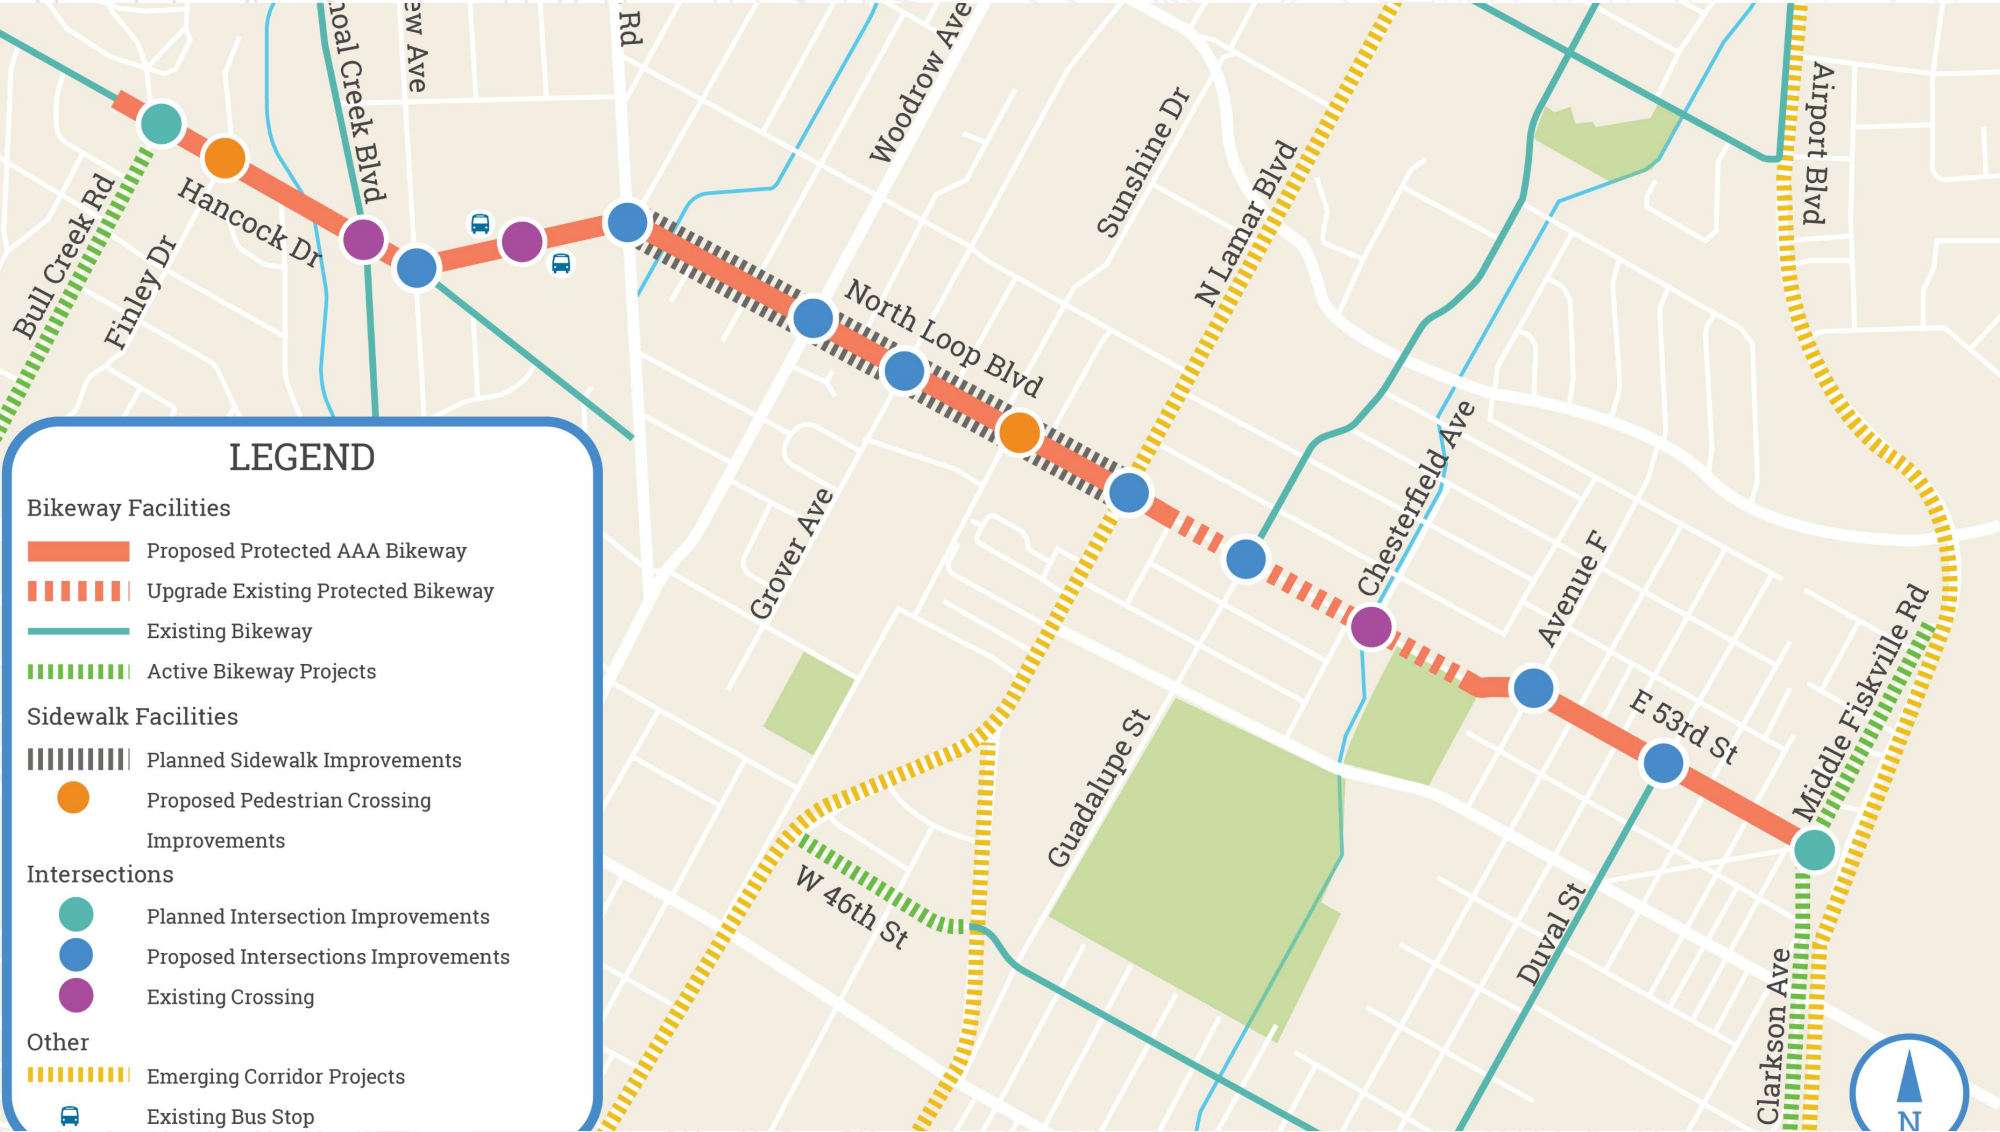

Banister Lane (Ben White Blvd. – S. 2nd Street)

Steck Avenue (MoPac – Burnet Rd)

Hancock Dr. North Loop Blvd. E. 53rd St. (Bull Creek Rd. – Bruning Ave.)

More at Austin Mobility Flickr

Projects in Development

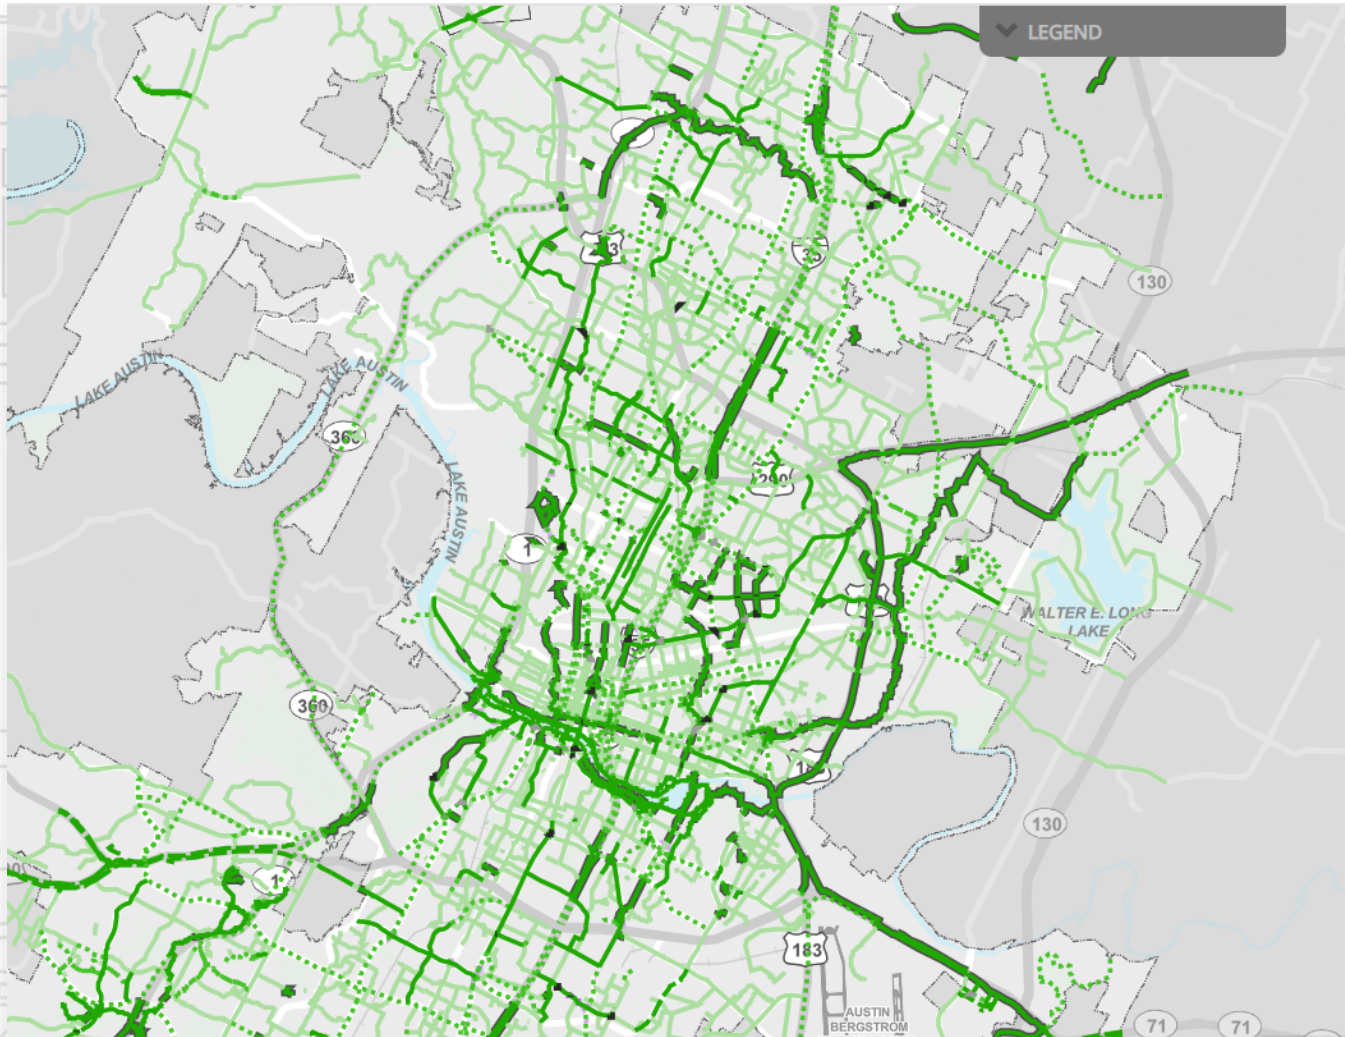

East 12th Street (Navasota Street – Webberville Road)

East 5th Street Rail with Trail (Navasota St. – Pedernales St.)

Share your feedback through August 14th!
www.austintexas.gov/East5th

A Story Map

All Ages and Abilities Bicycle Priority Network

Buildout Status Map

This interactive map shows the current and anticipated build-out of the AAA Bicycle Network. This map helps understand how the existing network connects, where gaps exist and the status of projects to fill those gaps. Explore the map and click on pieces of the network to learn more about each project.

Map Legend (Click on map for more information)

AAA Bicycle Priority Network

- Complete (Full Build Quality)
- Complete
- Construction
- Active
- Potential

Protected Intersections

- Complete
- Active

Enhanced Bus Stops (Bus, Bike, Pedestrian Design)

- Complete
- Active