PROPOSAL

---

Remodel a ca. 1912 house.

PROJECT SPECIFICATIONS

---

Reconfigure main façade, changing window and door openings and removing original door with sidelights. Change front porch posts and remove Craftsman-style decorative detailing.

ARCHITECTURE

---

One-story Craftsman bungalow with modern two-story rear addition and accessory dwelling unit. The main house has traditional Craftsman details, such as triangular brackets at gable ends, exposed rafter tails, and decorative attic vents. Its 1:1 windows have been replaced with modern vinyl windows.

RESEARCH

The house at 2009 S. 2nd Street was built around 1912. Its first occupant, Frank Foster, was a South Austin farmer. Its next owners, Clarence and Lizzie Houston, lived there only for a short time, as Clarence Houston died suddenly of tuberculosis at age 33. After 1918, Lizzie Houston sold the property to the Prewitt family, who lived there for at least forty years. Elisha Prewitt worked as a rural paper carrier for the Austin American-Statesman, and Lizzie Prewitt worked as a bookbinder for Firm Foundations Publishing Company and the E. L. Steck Company.

"I'D ALMOST GIVEN UP ALL HOPE" SAYS MRS. L. E. HOUSTON

Well Known Austin
Woman Had Suffered for Years and
Couldn't Get Relief
Until She Took Tanlac.

Is Now Well and Happy as Can Be and Says
She Can Hardly Find
Words That Will Express Her Gratitude.

"I am so thankful for what Tanlac has done for me I can hardly find words to express my gratitude," said Mrs. L. E. Houston, 2009 South Second Street, a few days ago when talking to a Tanlac representative.

"It just seemed to me that there was no joy in living at all. I suffered for so many years with nervous indigestion and insomnia. I am ashamed to say it, but I got to the place where I was cross with everybody and irritable even to myself, especially in the morning. Nothing I did seemed to go right, and I grew more and more despondent, until I felt I never would be well again and had almost given up hope. I couldn't eat anything without having awful pains in my stomach and side, and I would get so sick from a sour stomach, that I would often vomit up the food I had eaten. I suffered so from nervous headaches, that it seemed there was a tight band pressing around my forehead and temples. I couldn't rest day nor night and was losing weight and strength all the time. I tried medicine after medicine but couldn't get relief, until one day a friend of mine told me about Tanlac and I bought a bottle and started taking it.

"Well sir, I feel like I could eat four or five times a day and it would never hurt me a bit, since I started taking my first bottle. I crave food all the time and after I eat, if I didn't remember how I had suffered, it would seem to me that there couldn't be such a thing as indigestion. I think it just marvelous that I could be relieved and strengthened so in so short a time. I can sleep like a log now. In fact, I have to depend on the alarm clock to wake me in the morning. I am glad to give you this testimonial because I feel that there are other women who suffer as I did, who will read it, and I am sure that they will receive the same benefits that I have from the use of Tanlac."

"Tanalac is sold in Austin by the Van Smith Drug Co., under the personal direction of a special representative."
