Margaret Dismukes Massad - Peterpan Mini Golf

Alexander Strenger - City Issues

Dian Prechter - You have an upcoming meeting of the Audit and Finance Committee on Sept. 27th.

Please consider making a recommendation for an audit by the City Auditor's Office for the Zilker Park Vision Plan's Survey #6 so we can find a better way to perform community engagement in the future to gain public trust. There will be PARD projects in the future that require community engagement -- Deep Eddy, for example, or other parks -- and an audit at this time would clarify best-practices and reaffirm PARD's commitment to professional standards for gathering and listening to public input in a way that would be accepted by the general public.

Much of the failure of the ZPVP to achieve public support could have been prevented by requiring the Planners to provide a statistically valid survey. An audit of Survey #6 would be both educational for PARD and would help restore public confidence and willingness to participate in future City-sponsored community engagement.

Ryan Kagan - Discuss bill HB969 that was passed and takes affect September 1, allowing municipalities to enforce custody interference with a $500 fine.

Brenda malik - Items 113-114 Removal of Rosewood Neighborhood Overlay

I would like to speak in opposition of this proposal. It is tragic that the Council would disregard the hard work and dedication of its' citizens to come up with the more than 900 pg. document that the Rosewood Neighborhood Assn. submitted and the City agreed to honor.

It feels like the same kind of betrayal of treaties experienced by our Native Americans with the Federal Government. Please don't make the same mistakes of the past. Learn from them and move forward, not backward!
