Additional Backup Information:

The contract is for an Adobe Enterprise Term License Agreement (ETLA) and related services. Adobe software is used for document compilation, manipulation, and design. The ETLA allows City departments to better organize and consolidate their Adobe software portfolio into one agreement to facilitate upgrades, annual subscription renewals, and new purchases.

The State of Texas Department of Information Resources cooperative is a cooperative purchasing association recognized under Texas procurement statutes. Cooperative associations, themselves or using a lead government, competitively solicit and award contracts that are eligible for use by other qualified state and local governments. Due to their substantial volumes, larger than any one government could achieve independently, cooperative contracts routinely include superior terms, conditions, and pricing. Use of cooperative contracts also results in lower administrative costs and time savings.
