Article 5 – Purpose

(See instructions. This form does not contain language needed to obtain a tax-exempt status on the state or federal level.)

The nonprofit corporation is organized for the following purpose or purposes:

AHFC Pleasant Valley Non-Profit Corporation (nonprofit corporation) is established to aid Austin Housing Finance Corporation (AHFC), a public instrumentality, in its essential governmental functions and duties to foster affordable rental housing for low and very low-income households in the City of Austin, specifically through the construction and operation of a rental housing development located at or near 5900 S. Pleasant Valley Road, Austin, Texas 78744 (Development).

The sole purposes of the nonprofit corporation are (i) to serve as general partner or managing member of a Texas limited partnership (Limited Partnership) or Texas limited liability company (LLC) that will own the Development, and in connection therewith, own, hold, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with its general partnership interest in the Limited Partnership or managing member interest in the LLC, and (ii) if applicable, to serve as general contractor for the construction of the Development.

The nonprofit corporation may engage in any lawful act or activity and exercise any power permitted to a limited partnership or limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Texas that is related or incidental to and necessary, convenient, or advisable for the accomplishment of the foregoing purposes.

The following text area may be used to include any additional language or provisions that may be needed to obtain tax-exempt status.

The nonprofit corporation is formed pursuant to Chapter 22 of the Texas Business Organizations Code (Nonprofit Corporations). The nonprofit corporation is directed by AHFC, in accordance with Chapter 394 of the Texas Local Government Code (Housing Finance Corporations in Municipalities and Counties), which authorizes the nonprofit corporation to assist and act on behalf of the AHFC to engage in activities that promote the purpose for its creation. The nonprofit corporation may be organized and operated exclusively for one or more charitable purposes as defined by Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor federal tax code.

The owner of the Development will own, construct, and operate the Development. The Development is a multifamily development of approximately 96 rental units in Austin, Travis County, Texas. AHFC, or an affiliate of AHFC, will ground lease the land to the Owner of the Development.

Addendum

Article 6

The nonprofit corporation is a nonprofit corporation formed under the laws of the State of Texas, and is related to, affiliated with, and an instrumentality of, AHFC.

Article 7

The period of the nonprofit corporation's duration is perpetual.

Article 8

The nonprofit corporation is organized and will be operated solely for the following purposes: (i) aiding, assisting, and acting on behalf of AHFC, in the performance of its essential governmental functions, to promote the common good and general welfare of AHFC on behalf of and for the benefit of the general public, the City of Austin, and the State of Texas; (ii) fostering affordable housing in Austin, Travis County, Texas, by causing approximately 96 rental housing units located at or near 5900 S. Pleasant Valley Road, Austin, Texas, to be occupied by persons or families with incomes that do not exceed the allowable amounts stated in the Land Use Restriction Agreement between the Limited Partnership or LLC and the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs, and other agreements of the Limited Partnership or LLC which restrict tenant incomes, adjusted for household size; (iii) serving as the general partner of the Limited Partnership or managing member of the LLC that will construct, own and operate the Development, subject to a ground lease, and performing all obligations and duties as general partner under the Limited Partnership agreement or as managing member of the LLC under the Operating Agreement, including the incurrence of all debts and obligations contemplated under the Limited Partnership agreement or Operating Agreement; (iv) if applicable, serving as the general contractor for the construction of the Development; (v) promoting, developing, encouraging and maintaining the Development as decent, safe, and sanitary housing at affordable prices; and (vi) ensuring to the maximum extent possible that the Development helps to achieve the public purposes and functions of AHFC.

The nonprofit corporation may not: (a) engage directly or indirectly, in any business or activity other than the development, construction, ownership, and operation of the Development, acting as the general partner of the Limited Partnership or managing member of the LLC, and, if applicable, as the general contractor for the construction of the Development, (b) incur or assume any indebtedness for the construction, ownership, operation or disposition of the Development, other than indebtedness incurred or assumed in carrying out the nonprofit corporation's obligations or rights as the general partner of the Limited Partnership or managing member of the LLC, or (c) violate or fail to maintain the nonprofit corporation's identity as an entity separate from any other person or entity.

The nonprofit corporation may perform any and all lawful activities which may be reasonably necessary, useful or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining any of the foregoing purposes, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, such as corporations, firms, associations, trusts, institutions, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

Article 9

Powers

The activities of the nonprofit corporation and the application of the funds and assets of the nonprofit corporation are limited to the purposes stated herein, but the nonprofit corporation expressly : (i) has and may exercise all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and functions given by the general laws of the State of Texas to nonprofit corporations incorporated under the Code; and (ii) has all other powers of a like or different nature not prohibited by law which are available to nonprofit corporations in the State of Texas and which are necessary or useful to enable the nonprofit corporation to perform the purposes for which it is created, including the power to issue bonds, notes, or other obligations, and otherwise exercise its borrowing power to accomplish the purposes for which it was created.

Article 10

Board of Directors

All powers of the nonprofit corporation are vested in a Board of Directors (the Board) consisting of three persons. The initial directors of the nonprofit corporation (each a Director and collectively the Directors) are those persons named in Article 3. Each such person resides in the State of Texas, and each is an employee of the City of Austin. Each initial Director will serve for a term expiring December 1, 2025. Subsequent Directors must be appointed to the Board of the nonprofit corporation by the Board of Directors of AHFC. Except as provided in this Articles 10, each Director must serve for the term provided in the Bylaws. Any Director may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors of AHFC. The number of Directors may be increased or decreased only by an amendment to this Certificate of Formation and may never be decreased to less than 3.

To be qualified to serve as a Director, a person must be an employee of AHFC or the City of Austin and be at least 18 years old. AHFC designates the president of the nonprofit corporation. AHFC may appoint the number of ex-officio, non-voting members of the Board that is desired. All other matters pertaining to the internal affairs of the nonprofit corporation are governed by the Bylaws of the nonprofit corporation, so long as such Bylaws are not inconsistent with this Certificate of Formation or the laws of the State of Texas.

Article 11

Limitation on Liability of Directors

To the fullest extent permitted by Texas statutes, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits broader limitation than permitted prior to such amendment, a Director is not liable to the nonprofit corporation for monetary damages for an act or omission in the Director's capacity as a Director. Any repeal or amendment of this Article 11 by the Directors is prospective only and does not adversely offset any limitation on the personal liability of a Director existing at the time of such repeal or amendment.

Article 12

Restrictions and Requirements

Regardless of any other provisions of this Certificate of Formation or the laws of the State of Texas, the nonprofit corporation may not (i) permit any part of the net earnings of the nonprofit corporation to inure to the benefit of any private interest or private individual, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for personal services rendered to or for the nonprofit corporation in effecting one or more of its purposes; (ii) devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise; or (iii) participate in, or intervene in, directly or indirectly, political campaigns on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Any income earned by the nonprofit corporation after payment of reasonable expenses, debt and establishing a reserve with respect to the Development accrues only to the benefit of AHFC, unless AHFC otherwise directs in accordance with the Local Government Code.

No note, bond, loan, debt, or other obligation of the nonprofit corporation is an indebtedness, liability, general or moral obligation, or pledge of the faith or credit of the State of Texas, the City of Austin, AHFC, or any other political subdivision or governmental unit. In addition no note, bond, loan, debt, or other obligation constitutes an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction or an agreement, obligation, or indebtedness of AHFC, the City of Austin, or the State of Texas within the meaning of AHFC's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, the City Charter, or of any constitutional or statutory provision whatsoever.

AHFC, at all times has an unrestricted equal right to receive any income earned by the nonprofit corporation, exclusive of amounts needed by the nonprofit corporation to cover reasonable expenditures and reasonable reserves for future activities. The nonprofit corporation must conduct its affairs and activities so as to insure that upon its dissolution full legal title to all property of the nonprofit corporation with respect to which such indebtedness was incurred will vest in AHFC.

Article 13

Amendment to Certificate of Formation and Bylaws

This Certificate of Formation and the Bylaws of the nonprofit corporation may at any time and from time to time be amended so as to make any changes therein and add any provisions thereto which might have been included in the Certificate of Formation or the Bylaws in the first instance. Any such amendment is effected in either of the following manners: (i) the Board of the nonprofit corporation files with the Board of Directors of AHFC an application in writing seeking permission to amend the Certificate of Formation or the Bylaws, specifying in such application the amendment proposed to be made, the Board of Directors of AHFC will consider such application and, if it by appropriate resolution duly finds and determines that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the proposed amendment be made and authorizes the same to be made, and approves the form of the proposed amendment, then the Board of the nonprofit corporation may amend the Certificate of Formation or the Bylaws by adopting such amendment at a meeting of the Board of the nonprofit corporation and, in the case of amendments to the Certificate of Formation, delivering articles of amendment to the Secretary of State, or (ii) the Board of Directors of AHFC may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the nonprofit corporation (including the power to terminate the nonprofit corporation), subject to any limitations on the impairment of contracts entered into by the nonprofit corporation, by adopting amendments to the Certificate of Formation or the Bylaws of the nonprofit corporation at a meeting of the Board of Directors of AHFC and in the case of amendments to the Certificate of Formation, delivering articles of amendment to the Secretary of State.

Article 14

Dissolution of the Corporation

If the Board of the nonprofit corporation or the Board of Directors of AHFC determines by resolution that the purposes for which the nonprofit corporation was formed have been substantially met and all debts and obligations incurred by the nonprofit corporation have been fully paid or otherwise provided for, the Board of the nonprofit corporation must request the Board of Directors of AHFC to execute and deliver Articles of Dissolution to the Secretary of State which states those facts and declares the nonprofit corporation dissolved in accordance with the requirements of the Code. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the nonprofit corporation, at any time and for any reason, all of the funds, properties and assets, including full legal title to all property of the nonprofit corporation, must vest in and be conveyed to AHFC unless AHFC otherwise directs in accordance with the Local Government Code.

Article 15

AHFC Approval

On _____, 2023 the Board of Directors of AHFC duly adopted AHFC Resolution No. 2023____-AHFC____ approving the creation of the nonprofit corporation and the forms of this Certificate of Formation and the initial Bylaws.

Article 16

Construction

All references in this Certificate of Formation to statutes, regulations or other sources of legal authority refer to the authorities cited, or their successors, as they may be amended from time to time.
