PROPOSAL

---

Construct a second-floor addition, deck, and patio at a ca. 1926 house.

PROJECT SPECIFICATIONS

---

The proposed addition is two stories in height. It is clad in horizontal siding, which will be installed throughout. Its roofline mirrors that of the original house, with a clipped side gable and central gablet. Windows are 1:1 throughout, and doors are fully-glazed sliders at secondary elevations. The north elevation features a second-floor balcony with a covered patio below.

ARCHITECTURE

One-story Craftsman with horizontal wood siding, screened wood windows, decorative shutters, a hooded entryway with decorative brackets, and a clipped-gable roof.

RESEARCH

---

The house at 1409 Alta Vista Avenue was built around 1926. Until 1947, its occupants were mostly short-term owners and renters, including an engineer, a state highway inspector, an office manager, and a mechanic. The home was then purchased by Frank and Lura Connolly. Frank Connolly was the editor, owner, and publisher of the Texas Tax Journal, while Lura worked both at the journal and as a Red Cross nurse. The Connollys sold the home in the late 1950s to Anna and William Duncum. William Duncum worked as a public school teacher.

DESIGN STANDARDS

The City of Austin's Historic Design Standards (March 2021) are based on the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation and are used to evaluate projects in National Register districts. The following standards apply to the proposed project:

Repair and alterations

1. General standards

The proposed project removes some windows at secondary façades to accommodate the addition. It replaces existing siding with fiber cement siding.

Residential additions

1. Location

The proposed addition is located at the rear and side of the existing house, set approximately 17' back from the front wall.

2. Scale, massing, and height

The proposed addition appears mostly compatible in scale and massing, though a single story would be more compatible.

3. Design and style

The proposed addition's design and style are largely compatible.

4. Roofs

The proposed roof form and materials are compatible.

5. Exterior walls

The proposed siding is compatible; variations in siding could be used to differentiate the original building from the new.

6. Windows, screens, and doors

Proposed fenestration appears compatible.

7. Porches and decks

Though the porch at the north elevation appears expansive, its significant setback may minimize its visual impact.

Summary

The project mostly meets the applicable standards.

Armistice Day

On this Armistice Day we pause to Salute our fighting men, both living and dead, who have given up their jobs, their homes, their families and even their lives to preserve our nation.

While we can't all get in the fight, we can serve our country by buying War Bonds and Stamps and doing everything in our power to assure our boys the necessary weapons and supplies they need.

And We Salute These Men From Our Store

THEY WERE NEEDED—The Red Cross aid station wasn't very busy when this picture was made at City Coliseum where the Capital Area Livestock Show and Junior Rodeo are going on. But later on, the aid technicians treated (a) a boy bitten by a hog, (b) a girl who injured her leg chasing a greased pig, (c) a boy who got a deep rope burn trying to rope a calf, and (d) a boy with a lacerated ear. Manning the aid station are C. B. Joy of 2015 Goodrich and Mrs. F. R. Connolly of 1409 Alta Vista.—(Neal Douglass Photo.)

Tax Bite Increases 50% in Ten Years

Frank R. Connolly's Texas Tax Journal has quoted the national Tax Foundation's summary showing that state and local taxes per individual have increased an average of over 50 per cent in the past 10-year period, with Texas trailing closely below the which ended last year, and thus before the actual and estimated increases authorized by legislatures generally this year will have begun to show up in the statistics.

Texas likely will show a relatively larger than average jump this year
