Plan Overview

VISION

The Palm District is a vibrant historic hub of downtown where the past is honored, culture is celebrated, and the future is shaped.

Dense transit-oriented development is balanced with history and natural spaces creating physical connections that invite people to move easily to and through the district.

The district is a dynamic place, growing and evolving, while actively retaining families and individuals who have traditionally called this place home.

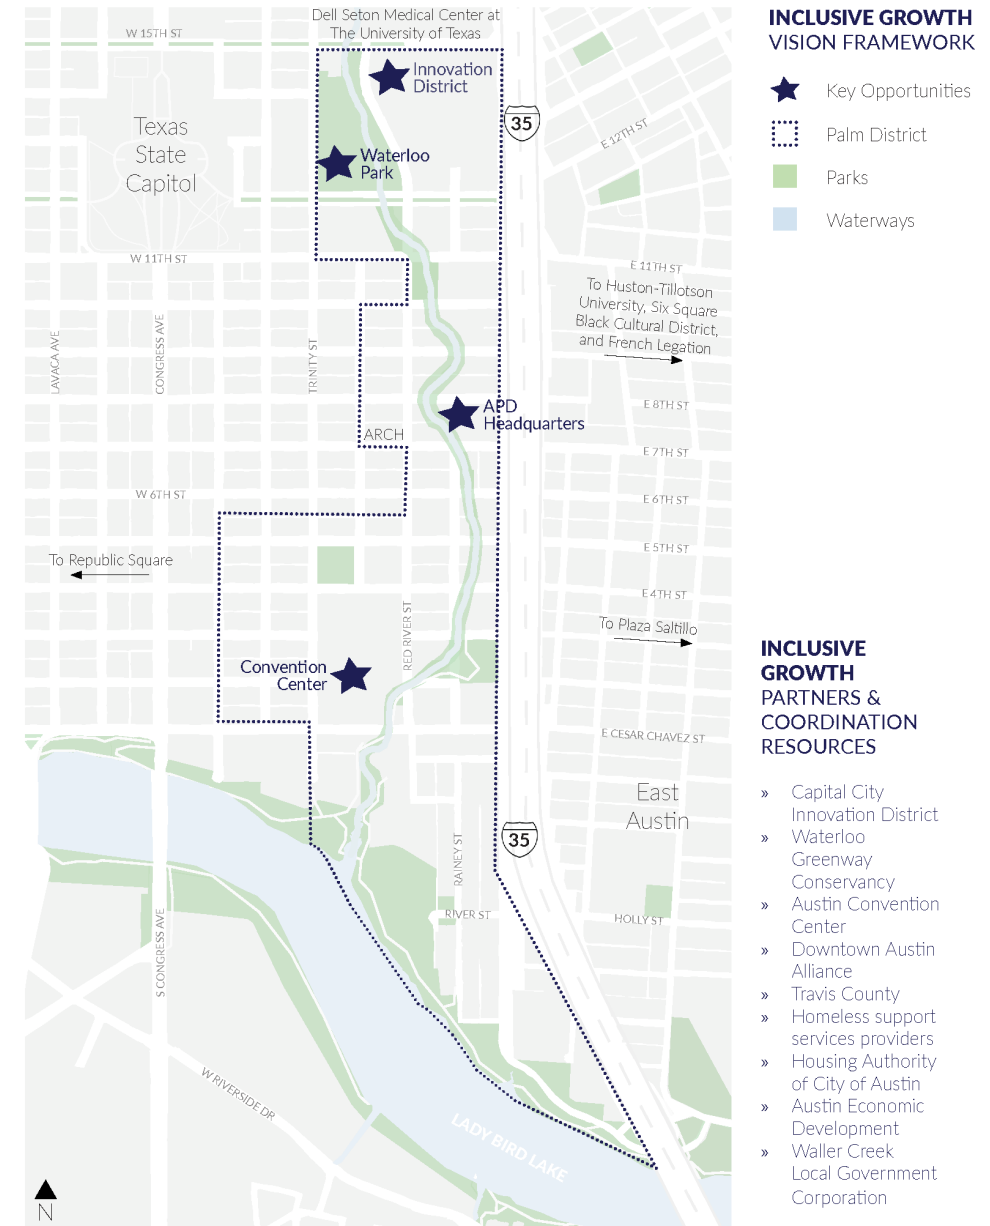

Creativity and innovation are cultivated, and people from Austin and beyond are welcome to live, relax, work, play, learn, and connect with others.

INCLUSIVE GROWTH

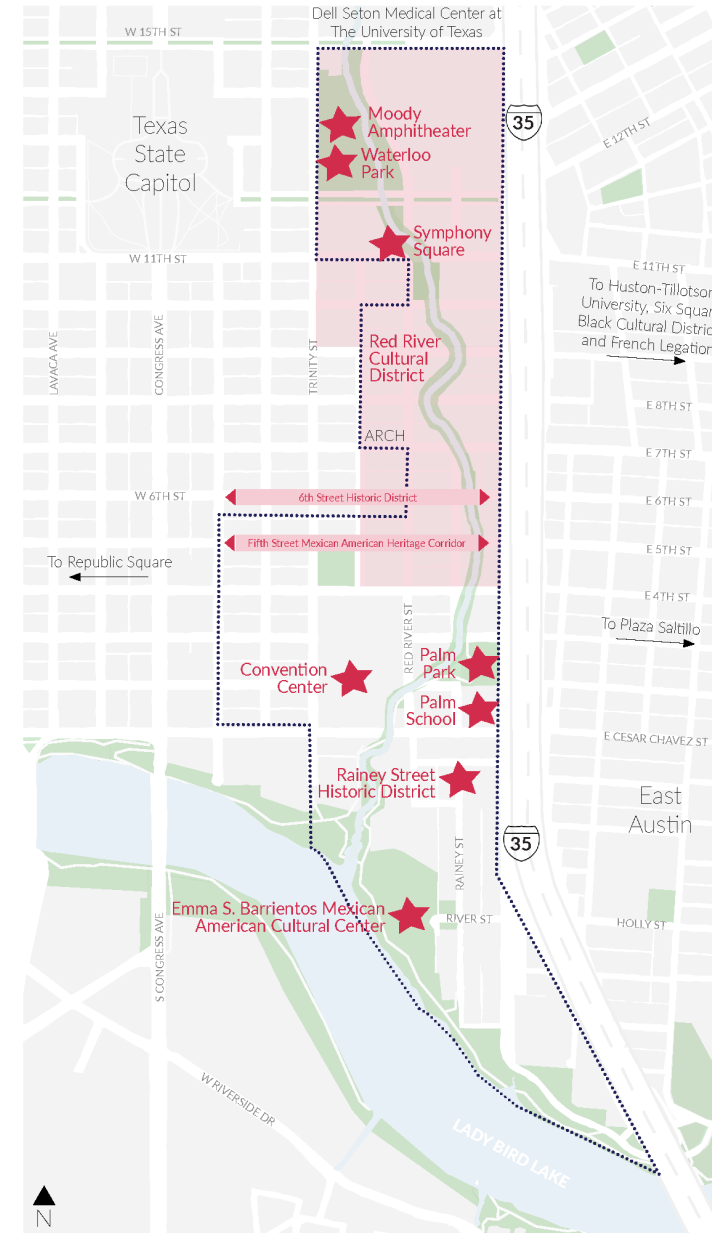

Growth in the district will provide a prosperous future for longtime and recent residents and for established and new businesses.

CULTURE

The district will become a destination that celebrates its multi-cultural heritage.

American Institute of Architects Recommendations:

The AIA report included a rendering of a potential gateway to Downtown through the Palm District highlighting the Mexican American heritage of the area.

Desired Outcomes....

Inclusive Growth

Create opportunities to use publicly-owned properties for dense, mixed-income housing, places for cultural celebration, and to preserve those sites that are of historical, social, and cultural significance.

Culture

Preserve performance venues in the Red River Cultural District through incentives, public private partnerships, and regulatory tools such as transfer of development rights, historic and landmark designations, and the Iconic Venue Fund.

Connection

Leverage the lowering and replacement of I-35 to create better and more attractive connections between East Austin and the District.

Nature

Improve the Waterloo Greenway, south of Palm Park to the Confluence, through lighting, interpretive signage, and other amenities to invite visitors and residents to explore and experience Waller Creek.

Scenario Development

- Partnership with Downtown Austin Alliance and Asakura Robinson
- Scenario Planning Workshops August 2022
- 3 Thematic Scenarios: Live, Work, Play

Looking Forward: “Bold Moves”

- Execute Council Approved Vision for Waterloo Greenway
- Bolster the Red River Cultural District and the “Live Music Mile”
- Stay Focused on Cap and Stitch and IH 35 Frontage Roads
- Leverage E-TOD, Downtown Station connectivity, and future Convention Center cultural programming
- Accommodate Housing at a range of incomes

The Palm District is an area on the eastern edge of downtown Austin that includes many attractions and points of interest such as Waller Creek, Red River Cultural District, Palm School, Rainey Street, the Emma S. Barrientos - Mexican American Cultural Center, and the Convention Center. The area is a dynamic gateway for visitors and a cultural touchstone for Austin's Mexican American community.

The Palm District Planning Initiative will guide future development in the district, linking land use, urban design, transportation, economic development, housing, public spaces, historic preservation, cultural arts, and social equity.

Through this process, the City will partner Continue reading
