

October 23, 2023

Dear Kelly Maltsberger,

I am writing to express my heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance the work the Parks and Recreation Department does in bridging the gap between the city and the community. By investing in projects like The Creature Project, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity and investment, ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference, and your efforts did not go unnoticed. I am confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Pedro A. Villalobos".

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "Kathryn Flowers".

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear Clinton Hofmeister,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several fluid, overlapping loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

A handwritten signature in black ink, featuring a large, circular flourish at the beginning and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear David Crabb,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear Matthew Rodriguez,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

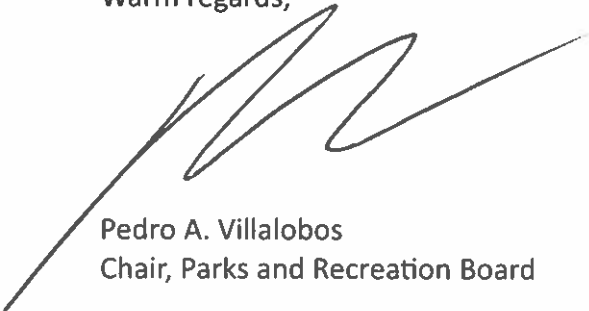

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear Delano Brown,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear Rick Kocian and the program delivery team at Hancock Recreation Center,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Elowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board
October 23, 2023

October 23, 2023

Dear Iliana Dominguez and the program delivery team at Dittmar Recreation Center,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

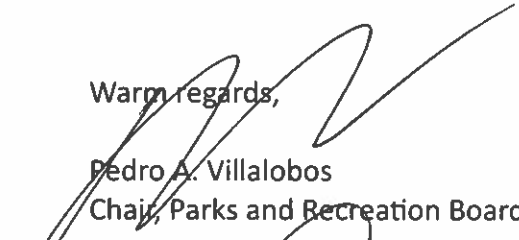

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear West Baxter,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear Mark Vasquez and the program delivery team at Montopolis Recreation Center.,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Willalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

October 23, 2023

Dear Janet Moore and the program delivery team at Oswaldo A.B. Cantu/ Pan American Recreation Center,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villarobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice Chair, Parks and Recreation Board
October 23, 2023

October 23, 2023

Dear Devon Farber,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Dear Denise Cavanaugh and the program delivery team at Virginia L. Brown Recreation Center,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Dear Jonathon Haynes and the program delivery team at Mendez Recreation Center.,

On behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board, we are writing to express our heartfelt appreciation for the outstanding effort and dedication you have demonstrated during The Creature Project.

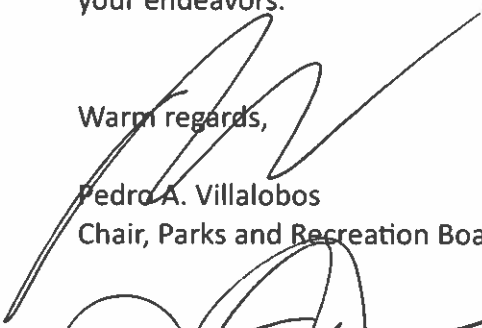

Your hard work and commitment have not gone unnoticed. You have shown an exceptional level of commitment to our community and its youth and artists. It is a pleasure to witness your positive influence.

Your contributions demonstrate the importance of the work the Parks and Recreation Department does to bridge the gap between the city and the community. By investing in these projects, the City of Austin acknowledges the importance of inclusivity - ensuring that every citizen, regardless of background, enjoys the benefits of nature and recreational facilities. In doing so, the city not only enriches lives but also advances a more just and interconnected society.

Please accept our deepest gratitude for your unwavering commitment and exceptional contributions. It is people like you who make a real difference – keep up the good work. We are confident that your continued efforts will lead to even greater achievements in the future.

Thank you once again for everything you do. Wishing you continued success and fulfillment in all your endeavors.

Warm regards,

Pedro A. Villalobos
Chair, Parks and Recreation Board

Kathryn Flowers
Vice-Chair, Parks and Recreation Board
October 23, 2023