Dear Luis Padilla,

We hope this letter finds you well and filled with the warmth of the holiday season. We wanted to express our deepest gratitude on behalf of the City of Austin Parks and Recreation Board.

Your collective efforts and generosity have played a pivotal role in making this year's Thanksgiving event an overwhelming success. It was truly heartwarming to witness the community coming together to ensure that every family in need could experience the joy and abundance of the Thanksgiving holiday.

The spirit of community that was evident throughout this endeavor embodies the true essence of Thanksgiving. Your kindness and compassion have not only provided nourishment for the body but have also nourished those who may have been facing difficult circumstances. Your efforts have made a significant impact on the lives of those who might have otherwise faced a challenging holiday season.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to you, and to every volunteer, donor, and supporter who contributed in various capacities, whether through time, resources, or emotional support. Your generosity has created a ripple effect of positivity that will be felt long after the Thanksgiving season.

Your dedication to making a difference in the lives of others is a shining example of the good that can be achieved when a community comes together with a common goal.
