MAYOR'S COMMITTEE FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES
APRIL 12, 2024

≡ Plan Vision

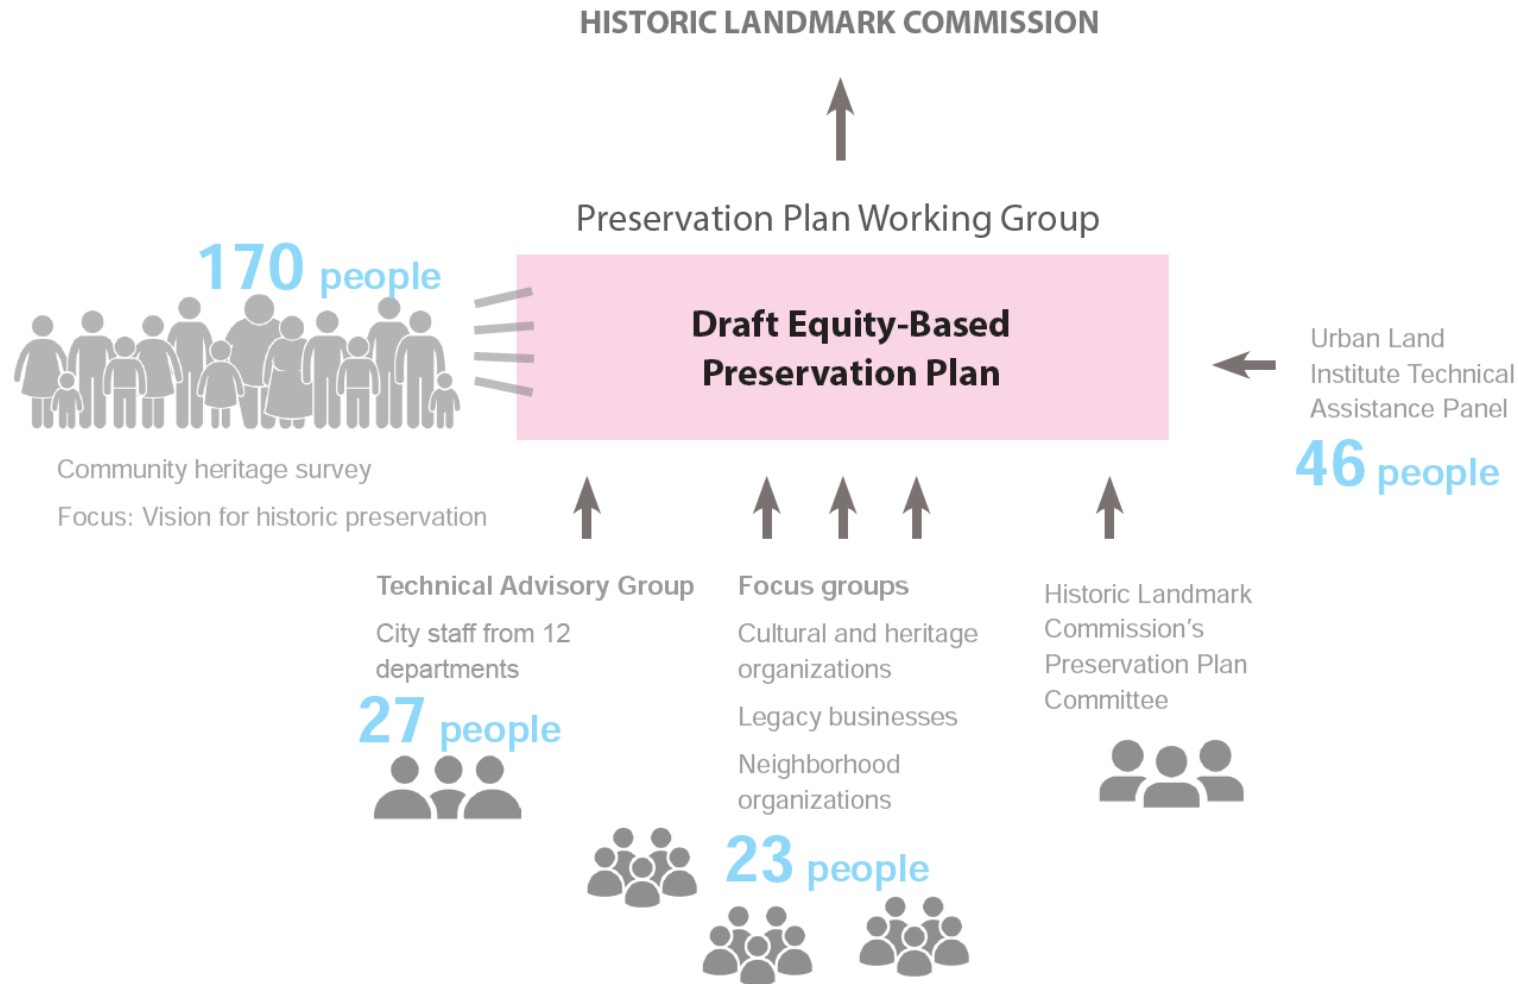

Historic preservation in Austin actively engages communities in protecting and sharing important places and stories. Preservation uses the past to create a shared sense of belonging and to shape an equitable, inclusive, sustainable, and economically vital future for all.

Equity-Based Preservation Plan

REVIEWING THE DRAFT

Draft Plan Goals

1. Tell Austin's full history
2. Recognize cultural heritage
3. Preserve archaeological resources
4. Stabilize communities
5. Support environmental sustainability
6. Engage communities equitably
7. Support people doing the work
8. Engage new partners
9. Proactively identify important places
10. Follow good designation practices
11. Support stewardship of community assets
12. Be strategic with review
13. Protect historic resources
14. Implement the plan collaboratively

≡ What We Preserve

Think broadly.

- Recognize Austin's rich and complex history through active listening, inclusive research, and interpretation
- Better recognize and protect legacy businesses, murals, and archaeological resources
- Use preservation tools to support community stabilization and environmental sustainability

Who Preserves

Invite and support.

- Help people access knowledge, resources, and decision-making power
- Streamline and explain historic review and designation processes
- Support craftspeople, commissioners, and staff
- Engage new partners and audiences

≡ How We Preserve

Be strategic and effective.

- Update designation criteria to reflect modern standards
- Support the stewards of Austin's historic properties
- Be strategic with review
- Improve enforcement processes
- Implement the plan collaboratively

Especially Relevant Recommendations

- Recognize and honor Austin’s full history by listening to community members and sharing stories out through interpretation. (Recommendations 1, 2, 5, 6)
- Use creative interpretation to tell the full stories of historic places in Austin. (5)
- Support people staying in place through accessory dwelling units (ADUs), resources for heirs’ property owners and low-income seniors, and a legacy inheritance incentive. (18, 21, 22)
- Improve historic designation and historic review processes to be more clear, streamlined, and transparent. (34)
- Engage more people through proactive outreach and partnerships; develop better materials; and help people access resources to preserve community stories. (33, 47-50)
- Proactively identify important places and businesses through community engagement, cultural mapping, a citywide windshield survey, and prioritized historic resource surveys. (3, 55-57)
