RE: Comparison -- Granger House & O'Quinn House — Arthur Fehr (Fehr & Granger)

Hello Kalan Contreras.

Of course you know the following.

The Granger home is designated and recorded on the US National Register of Historic Places.

The Granger home is a Texas Historic Landmark.

The Granger home is a City of Austin Historic Landmark.

Designations

U.S. National Register of Historic Places, listed on November 29, 2006 | Recorded Texas Historic Landmark, designated in 2010 | City of Austin Historic Landmark, designated in 2007

There are some fascinating similarities as one compares "The Granger Home" to "The Trueman Edgar O'Quinn Home".

The archival records at The University of Texas Library show that these two homes were designed by Arthur Fehr and Charles Granger during the same time frame. The projects are listed as Project 150 "Granger Residence" and as Project 151 "O'Quinn Residence". There are some remarkable similarities that can be observed.

Some of these similarities are illustrated in the images shown below.

Once again: Thank you for your knowledgeable dedication to Historic Preservation within the City of Austin.
