Recommendation

The Austin Rosewood Community Development Corporation recommends City Council create a City Board in accordance with Chapter 2-1 to: 1) be made up of nine members; 2) to be named the Millennium Youth Entertainment Complex Advisory Board; and, 3) to serve the purpose of advising the City Council on the establishment and operation of the Millennium Youth Entertainment Complex, and to cooperate with any civic and volunteer group organized to foster, promote, and sponsor the Millennium Youth Entertainment Complex.

Rationale:

WHEREAS, the Austin Rosewood Community Development Corporation (ARCDC) was established in 1995 as a requirement associated with a HUD Section 109 guaranteed loan for the Millennium Youth Entertainment Center (MYEC);

WHEREAS, Formation of the ARCDC was approved by the Attorney General's Office as a local government corporation under Subchapter D, Chapter 431, Texas Transportation Code. The Corporation was charged with overseeing the construction and operation of MYEC which was completed in 1999;

WHEREAS, [section on the HUD loan having been paid off and the ARCDC having fulfilled its essential purpose];

WHEREAS, the agreement for private operation and management of the MYEC has ended and the City of Austin has assumed operation and management of the MYEC as of October 1, 2025;

WHEREAS, the ARCDC Board wishes to no longer be a signatory to any agreement for operation and management of the MYEC;

WHEREAS, it is the intention of the ARCDC Board to dissolve itself after the City of Austin creates an Advisory Board to fulfill a similar purpose;

THEREFORE, the Austin Rosewood Community Development Corporation recommends City Council create a City Board in accordance with Chapter 2-1 to: 1) be made up of nine members; 2) to be named the Millenium Youth Entertainment Complex Advisory Board; and, 3) to serve the purpose of advising the City Council on the establishment and operation of the Millenium Youth entertainment Complex, and to cooperate with any civic and volunteer group organized to foster, promote, and sponsor the Millenium Youth Entertainment Complex.
